What is a Solar scam?

A solar company uses the premise of getting 30% off solar to get homeowners to sign a lease or PPA, and then collects it for themselves. In extreme cases, solar scammers may even pose as utility or government officials trying to promote a new or unique solar program in your area.

Is residential solar a scam?

When done right, going solar can substantially reduce your carbon footprint and your energy costs. However, this rare double-whammy of benefits also makes the residential solar industry ripe for scams.

Are free solar panels a scam?

Remind prospective customers that while tax credits, rebates, and incentives might be available for solar purchasers who qualify, offers for "free" or "no cost" solar panels are scams. Comply with the law: old and new. Reputable companies know the importance of being honest about what they're offering - and how much it costs.

Can a government or utility official sell solar panels?

Now, any government or utility official trying to sell you solar panels should raise a red flag because governments and utilities don't sell or install solar panels. The bottom line is that there are solar incentives that can help reduce the cost of going solar.
