

On 16 August 2024, President Cyril Ramaphosa signed into law the Electricity Regulation Amendment Act ("ERA") which, arguably, marks the most significant change in the South African ...

South Africa's electricity sector is undergoing a monumental transformation with the full implementation of the Electricity Regulation Amendment Act (ERAA) and related policies in 2025.

Discover the newly unveiled 2025 electricity rules in South Africa, highlighting crucial changes and their impact on households and businesses.

All amendments have been applied directly to the text and annotated. A scan of the original gazette of each piece of legislation (including amendments) is available for reference.

Electricity Regulation Act 4 of 2006 (current as at December 2025) Note that the President signed the Electricity Regulation Amendment Act 38 of 2024 into law on 20 August 2024, and this amendment ...

(1) The National Energy Regulator established by section 3 of the National Energy Regulator Act is the custodian and enforcer of the regulatory framework provided for in this Act.

South Africa's new Electricity Regulation Amendment Act will come into effect on 1 January 2025, aiming to modernize the energy system, boost renewable energy, and end load ...

Learn how South Africa's new electricity laws coming in October 2025 will affect your bills, introduce tiered pricing, and create incentives for renewable energy adoption.

The National Energy Regulator of South Africa (NERSA) is a regulatory authority established as a juristic person in terms of Section 3 of the National Energy Regulator Act, 2004 (Act ...

The Electricity Regulation Act 4 of 2006 intends: to establish a national regulatory framework for the electricity supply industry; to make the National Energy Regulator the custodian and enforcer of the ...

Web: <https://www.minimercadofortem.es>

